A DUCHESS, A NOTED PLAYWRIGHT, close to a dozen ambassadors, plus Senators and socialites, flocked to the Morris Cafritzes' Easter party yesterday afternoon.

People familiar with hostess Gwen's luck were convinced, despite dire warnings of precipitation, that it would not rain a drop, and of course it didn't.

Others who dropped by the Foxhall road residence — which was filled with Easter lilies and had the customary egg-shaped wire cage in the hall with two beautiful white bunnies in it — were Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Carmichael and their daughter Martha; Gen. and Mrs. Charles Cabell, who were chatting about the Air Force concert Saturday night; United States Information Director and Mrs. George Allen, District Commissioner and Mrs. Alvin Welling, Senator and Mrs. Dennis Chavez, Senator and Mrs. Ernest Gruening, Representative and Mrs. Ross Bass, the Arthur Middleton Hills, fresh from Palm Beach where they own a house, Dr. Lawn Thompson, Representative Jim Fulton, Mrs. Bill Foster, George Baker, Luis Pedroso, Mrs. Claude Pepper, just up from Miami, Mrs. Harry Grant Meem and her daughter and son-in-law, the Floyd Rogers' and her grandaughter Emily McLean, who was escorted by her fiance, Daniel Bartlett, jr., of St. Louis.
